LIVES TAKEN BY LEFT 1,600,000 SMYRNA FLOOD ESTATE TO SON

Turkey, Dec. 6 (AP)—Vast areas of the country have been devastated, with a loss of life that has not yet been estimated today, has been caused in Smyrna, by floods which followed torrential rains.

The lower part of the city, sometimes called the "Unfortunate City of Asia Minor" was reported to be submerged to a depth of five feet. Many houses collapsed and others washed away, the inhabitants being forced to take refuge on roofs and in trees.

Appeals are pouring in.

Schwab took great personal interest in the building of the Lexington at the Fore River yards of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation, of which he is board chairman.

AMERICAN TOTS HAPPY ON WAY TO NOBILITY

By DAVID F. SENTNER, International News Service Correspondent.

New York, Dec. 6—Four unassuming, meet Marjorie and Isabelle, 8 and 10. They used to live in Chicago, but now they are jolly English—we hope.

These two Cinderella maids, en route to a place in British nobility and an inheritance of millions, arrived in New York today from Chicago.

Arthur Campbell, Jr., extremely English, shepherded the lucky youngsters. He will take them to the home of his mother, the Marchioness of Huntly, at Orion Hall, Peterborough, England.

BELIEVE IN SANTA.
The little girls, daughters of Lloyd G. Meuser, Chicago advertising man who died last February, boiled like any two American children. They were dressed alike in navy blue and blue berets and bare knees showed above their socks.

"Do you believe in Santa Claus?" Isabelle and Marjorie were asked. "Vision of the old-time English Christmas with a crackling yuletide plum pudding and Christmas tree like the tower of London."

"I do," answered bright-eyed Marjorie, the youngest. "I do," said red-checked Isabelle. "And fairy tales?" was asked. Both nodded in chorus, emphatically.

SMILE FOR PICTURES.
Who wouldn't, under the circumstances.

Newsreel photographers asked Campbell if the little girls would pose for pictures.

"Oh, I say," protested Campbell. The sisters looked at their guardian hesitatingly.

Campbell gave his permission. The youngsters looked at each other. The cameraman did not have to ask them to smile. The flashlights popped and boomed on the train platform of the Grand Central terminal. Isabelle and Marjorie took it like the little English ladies they were going to be.

Buyers Facing Double Tax on Same Auto

A "joker" that will compel the purchaser of a new automobile prior to July to pay two car taxes for the use of one was found today in the law passed by the last Legislature and governing taxation of automobiles by cities.

The law provides that anyone buying a new car before July of any year and turning in his old car must pay taxes on both, despite the fact that he has turned in the old car and has not its use. Officials of the Boston assessing department expressed surprise that the automobile dealers overlooked the "joker" and that the Legislature, although a majority of its members was written into the bill.

The only way out of the double payment is one roundabout the city. The only way out of the double payment is one roundabout the city. The only way out of the double payment is one roundabout the city.

MILLIONS IN UPHAMS CORNER MARKET DEAL

OWNERS SECURE MANHATTAN IN CAMBRIDGE

John and Paul Cifrone, brothers and owners of the Upham's Corner Market in Dorchester, claimed to be the largest retail food market in the world, announced today that they have taken over the Manhattan Market.

The Manhattan Market, one of the largest in New England, is in Central Cambridge and will remain on that site, under the Cifrone management, greatly enlarged and expanded.

STORE FOR QUINCY
In addition, according to the Cifrone brothers, they will begin immediate construction of a $100,000 store in Quincy, patterned along the Upham's Corner Market lines, to serve the South Shore trade which now is compelled to journey all the way to Dorchester.

The amalgamation of the two concerns, to be completed before January 1, will result in a 1928 sales volume of approximately $6,000,000, according to an estimate of the brothers who came here as immigrants from Sicily in 1905, and started their American careers in 1910.

CIFRONE CHAIN
It is expected that the two markets amalgamated and the third, to be constructed, will form the nucleus of a chain of Cifrone stores, to embrace other large centers in New England.

The new company, organized as a result of the amalgamation, will have Paul Cifrone, the younger brother, as president. John Cifrone, the older brother and founder of the original Upham's corner market on its present site, 34 years ago, will be vice-president.

Auto Man Is Slain By Irate Husband

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 6 (AP)—G. Hall Davis, Atlanta automobile dealer, was shot and killed on a downtown street here today by W. L. Shipley, who surrendered to the police with the statement that Davis attempted to take Shipley's car.

A few minutes after the shooting Shipley accused two policemen in front of police headquarters and announced he wished to report the killing of a man.

"Are you sure you killed some one?" he was asked. "I hope so," was the rejoinder. "I shot him through the head five times."

$20,000 in Rum Taken at Woonsocket Raid

Providence, Dec. 6 (AP)—Alcohol, his first raid, George E. (Hottel) Golding, federal prohibition agent, seized two big cutting plants in Woonsocket and confiscated about $20,000 worth of rum, liquor and 2500 fake liquor labels. No arrests were made.

BUS AND AUTO IN HITS HOOPER CRASH; 2 HURT ON ALIENS

Washington, Dec. 6 (AP)—The first campaign today found a Republican, Senator Reed, of Pennsylvania, announcing opposition to the proposal of Herbert Hoover for repeal of the national origin's provisions of the immigration act.

Democrats were quick to seize on the situation and when Senator Barker, Democrat, Kentucky, asked the Pennsylvania if he would oppose a recommendation by Mr. Hoover for repeal of the provision he replied: "Mr. Hoover speaks for himself. I speak for myself. We have a new and old but not now I will not accept any attempt to kill this provision."

Alfred H. Mellett, 17, of Vernon st., Wakefield, and Stanley Friselle, 19, of Salem st., Wakefield, were injured today when a touring car, owned and operated by Mellett, collided with an Elevated bus on the Foreway, Medford, near Central ave.

Both Mellett and Friselle, who were riding with him, were taken to Malden Hospital. Their names were put on the danger list. Mellett has a possible fracture of the skull. Friselle has internal injuries. The bus was operated by George H. Lewis of Medford. He was unhurt.

GIRL'S HATPIN TAKES PEP OUT OF RICH LOVE

Havana, Dec. 6 (INS)—A hatpin punctured the bubble of a possible romance between C. T. Whitehead, Atlanta, Ga., millionaire, and Miss Frances Porter, former show girl and newspaper writer, who is living on Whitehead's private yacht, the Malvern, following their elopement.

Whitehead had accused Miss Porter of jacking him with a hatpin and hitting him over the head with a slipper.

Miss Porter remained aboard the Malvern today, refusing to come ashore when she accompanied by an attaché of the U. S. consulate, said she was remaining behind locked doors in her cabin while court officers were aboard the vessel.

Whitehead told friends he "threw" Miss Porter. He said he did not care if she is deported or returns to the United States as a first class passenger on a liner.

Whitehead said he plans to make his future home here in winter time. He expects to cruise on his yacht during the summer season.

"There is no question of a reconciliation now," Whitehead was quoted as telling his friends. "I do not care what Miss Porter does. I expect to remain in Cuba, I plan to winter home in the suburbs of Havana."

"I will be in police court on Saturday when the charges against Miss Porter are to be heard. I do not think she will be released by the Cuban authorities while she is on the Malvern."

"I will await the outcome of Saturday's proceedings before making any effort to remove her from the yacht."

PRINCESS OF BOURBON TO WED U. S. MAN

(Copyright, 1928, by International News Service)

Paris, Dec. 6 (INS)—The family of Princess Marie Louise d'Orleans, daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Vendome and d'Alencon, are "in conversation" over her engagement to marry Walter F. Kingsland, Jr., rich American of New York and Paris, according to an exclusive statement made to International News Service by a French official.

The stockman was M. Doyen, administrator of the House of France (the House of Bourbon-Orleans, to which the family belongs).

"Princess Marie Louise has become engaged to Mr. Kingsland exclusively upon her own initiative and without the consent of her parents," said M. Doyen. "Her father, the Duke of Vendome, will never sanction her."

This is the second nuptial event to upset the great House of France within less than a year. The princess' brother, Prince Charles Philippe d'Orleans, Duke of Nemours, was married against his parents' wishes in London to Miss Peggy Watson of Washington, D. C., last winter.

The princess is a niece of King Albert of Belgium and was betrothed to the Duke of Vendome in 1915 and annulled a year later by the Rota of the Vatican. Her family also regarded the match as a "mesalliance," although they finally gave their consent to it.

In society circles it was declared today the Duchess of Vendome may consent to her daughter's marriage.

As the princess is a Catholic and her fiance is a Protestant, it was necessary for her to apply to the Vatican for a special marriage permit, which was granted. The princess has an 11-year-old son by her previous marriage.

good deed. Won't YOU assume OUR share?

A Jamaica Plain mother writes:

"I am a mother of seven small children and I am pleading to you to make them happy at Christmas. My husband, who was injured two years ago, works only from noon to six, and only from noon to six, and only from noon to six."

What father in such a straits who can resist this appeal? To think that an American mother, in a cultured Boston, should be forced to say: "I dread to see Christmas come for my children's sake."

And what about this little 12-year-old Boston boy who writes the Goodfellow Editor that his father died three years ago and his mother is always sick?

"We had such a hard time last winter," he states. "There are five of us children, the youngest five years old, and we have a bit of coal or wood in the house to keep us warm. We need clothing and shoes. Kind bless you for trying to help the poor."

Another mother writes that her husband has been out of work for weeks, and there are eight small children to feed and clothe—the youngest a little baby two weeks old.

"We didn't have any Thanksgiving dinner," admits this disheartened mother. "We just had salt and potatoes."

PLEADS FOR CHILDREN
Think of that—salt and potatoes—when you sit down to your Christmas turkey and all the trimmings that go with it. The very thought of it brings a lump into the throat. Here's another poor mother's plea:

"I am writing for my four little children's sake. I am expecting another in January. My oldest boy, seven years old, has been very sick and my little baby, two years old, broke his leg and wears a plaster cast. Another boy has been in hospital. I am asking if one of your Goodfellows will make my children happy this Christmas."

There are dozens of letters like this being received daily. Again, who will respond to them? If you want to be a Goodfellow for one or more families, write immediately to the Goodfellow Editor of the Boston Evening American and fill out the blanks published with this article. State, if you wish, the district of Boston, or any city, or the section of a town, in which you would like to be a Goodfellow.

The Goodfellow Editor will then send you the names and letters of the needy and you can have the hearty satisfaction of seeing of what is needed, buying it yourself and delivering it, too.

Think of the joy of being a real Santa Claus yourself.

If you cannot give the time to the buying and delivering, the Goodfellow Editor will be glad to attend to it for you.

Just send him your idea and your name, your selection of special district for your case or cases, and he will carry out everything just as you wish and confidentially, too.

Write today to the Goodfellow Editor, Boston Evening American, Washington St., Boston.

Tell him what you wish to do, what size family or families you wish to provide for and he will forward one or more of the pathetic letters or appeal that he is receiving every day from those who despair.

Don't forget: Write or fill in the blank NOW.

Be a Goodfellow.

said, asked Featheroff to come in and bring his gun.

"When I went in the parlor," Featheroff said to have told police, "Knocker told me he was in debt and tired of living and he wanted to die. He said I could have his farm if I'd shoot him."

"Then he walked over to the telephone and started the record, 'When the Sun Goes Down.' While he was standing there I shot him in the back of the head. I didn't stop to look after I pulled the trigger."

A year ago Featheroff was arrested on complaint of Knocker who accused him of having stolen a watch and gun case. The youth was released after questioning.

KING IS DOING WELL NOW, SAY PHYSICIANS

Interpret too optimistically the words of the bulletin, for the king has been ill for 17 days, and is regarded to be still a very sick man. Also it could hardly be thought that the chances for another turn for the worse have been eliminated.

Pleasure was expressed among the members of the royal household with what was regarded as the reassuring nature of the doctor's report. It was pointed out, however, that the progress indicated must necessarily be slow.

There also was satisfaction among the king's entourage that the doctor had omitted any mention of the anxiety concerning his heart, which had appeared in several previous bulletins. This also was regarded as a good sign.

About the time scheduled for the doctor's afternoon visit today the queen and Princess Mary went for a drive. The queen not only smiled as customarily in response to the salutations of the crowd at the palace gates, but waved her hand to the throng.

There was more than usual anxiety among the crowd which gathered before the Palace awaiting the morning bulletin, inasmuch as the king's report had shown that the patient was increasing fever and that the infective process was still active.

This anxiety on the public's part doubtless was responsible for the fact that despite a thick fog which overshadowed the Palace there was a constant trickle of visitors to the gates throughout the night.

Those read the night bulletin, being able to do so only by using electric torches or straining matches. The fog had lifted this morning, however, and the crowd could see today's bulletin board clearly.

CAR OWNERS CO. INSOLVENT

Intention to restrain the company from doing further business.

Finding the master's residence, a temporary restraining order had been served because the company agreed to suspend operations.

The Boston Evening American, in an exclusive article more than a month ago, was the first to make public the condition of the Car Owners Company which has 40,000 policy holders in Massachusetts.

Hitchcock finds that on August 31, 1923, the company had a deficit of $32,521.25.

He estimates that the deficit on December 31 will be $125,000.36.

Regarding the possibility of making assessments on the policy holders, this being a mutual company, the master said:

"I have not considered the contingent liability of the policy holders. Other than the total amount of gross premiums, amounting to $2,077,234.40, the amount assessable did not appear. Nor was there any evidence as to the extent to which such an assessment, if made, would be a practical matter to collect—or as to the expense of such collection.

"Under these circumstances the court can determine as readily as the master the value of the contingent liability of policy holders to the company."

GIRLS ATTACKED BY ARLINGTON BY PROWLER

Under suspicion, but no attack has been definitely traced to him yet, although he has been kept under close watch.

The boldest move of the prowler was made, police say, when he climbed through the window of a bedroom occupied by two sisters, 17 and 15 years old, on the first floor of a house on Randolph st. in the east end of Arlington, where he has most frequently been seen.

He held a handkerchief saturated in chloroform over the face of the younger girl and rendered her unconscious, forcing her to inhale so much that she nearly died and was under a doctor's treatment for several days.

He then turned to the sister, who was still asleep, and attempted to chloroform her. Her father rushed into the room and the intruder jumped out of the window and disappeared.

This was the third report of a prowler received by the police, the previous ones having come from families on Marlboro and Pleasant sts.

Following came complaints almost nightly. In most cases the "wolf" was seen hovering under the bedroom windows of high school girls and several had been raising the windows of rooms where women or girls were asleep.

The seriousness of the situation was brought home to residents today with disclosure of the long series of reaping and prowling, and complaints were made of insufficient police protection during the night.

Out of deference to the girls and families involved, the Boston Evening American is withholding them. The inquiries secured at homes on Linwood ave., Linden st., Gray st., Pleasant st., Marlboro st., Randolph st., the prowler returning more than once to several of these localities.

The nearest the police have come to capturing the guilty man was when Patrolmen Shea and Sullivan, having received his description from a house on Gray st., saw him loitering half mile away from that house and gave chase, firing shots after him, but he escaped.

Since then the authorities have patterned informants that capture them a resident of the town is living a Dr. T. J. Kelly and Mr. Hyde extensive, but only one woman was found who would identify him, and she was not sure enough to go to court.

Raiding Dogs Are Trapped In Coop

Caught in a trap of their own making, two dogs which have been raiding Quincy henhouses for a week were trapped today by Frank Southers of Edison st., Quincy. The dogs were 14 foot. Their total weight of prey is $5.

It was while working havoc among southern flocks that the canines got in trouble. They chewed loose a rope which closed a trap door on the upper floor of the henhouse. The door fell, dropping them into the coop, which had no exit.

The dogs were immediately surrounded by Quincy police. Unless their owners appear and pay all damages they will be executed.

Minister to Poland on Leave

Warsaw, Poland, Dec. 4 (AP)—John H. Stetson, Jr., American minister to Poland, will leave Warsaw on Dec. 14 for the United States on a leave of absence.

Boy in Stolen Auto Nabbed After Chase

Ignoring three shots fired by his pursuers, a 15-year-old boy led five policemen a hard chase through Forest Hills, early today, before he was finally captured after he abandoned the machine in which he was riding to continue his flight on foot.

Taken to the Springfield st. station, the youth described himself as Louis Archambault of Webster st., Haverhill. Communicating with the police of that city, authorities here reported that the machine in which the youth was riding, a sedan, was reported stolen in Haverhill early last night.

Berger Would Revive Old Anti-Klan Laws

Washington, Dec. 4 (AP)—The lone Socialist in Congress, Representative Berge of Wisconsin, took a swipe today at the Ku Klux Klan in a bill which he said would re-enact laws of nearly 50 years ago against the clan of that day.

He said the campaign had shown that "issues of tremendous importance were completely disregarded while the religious question became dominant." The South moved, he said, only when religion was invoked.

Asks Transfer of Vestris Loss Testimony to London

New York, Dec. 4 (AP)—Asserting that surviving officers of the lost liner Vestris had not been in the proper physical condition to tell of the disaster, Capt. Henry McCulley, British nautical adviser to U. S. Commissioner O'Neill, who conducted the federal investigation of the sinking, suggested today that the evidence obtained here be turned over to the British board of trade to assist it in its inquiry.

3 French Cabinet Attaches Accused

Paris, Dec. 4 (AP)—The name of Jean Hennessy, minister of agriculture, was brought into the "Gazette du France" case today when Deputy Chastanet, in a letter to Premier Poincaré, charged the minister with financial mismanagement. Andre Maginot of the ministry of colonies, and Francois Faure, under-secretary of House Affairs, the deputy declared, also were connected with financial companies, under-coming in a government affiliation.

HOOVER SPEEDS ON TO CHILE; NEXT STOP

Aboard U. S. S. Maryland (via Arlington, Va., Radio Station, Dec. 6)—President-elect Herbert Hoover today rested after the strenuous round of receptions and speeches at the overwhelming ovation accorded him at Calao and Lima, Peru.

The warship Maryland weighed anchor shortly after midnight and this morning was far down the Peruvian coast en route to Valparaiso, Chile.

At a stop of a few hours will be made off Antofagasta, Chile, probably Saturday morning so that Hoover can receive officials of the Belgian government aboard the Maryland.

Mr. Hoover's proposal of a comprehensive program to link North and South America by aviation lines was repeated by others of his party today as a masterstroke towards the cementing of friendly relations between the United States and the Latin-American countries.

Mr. Hoover felt he had been personally aided for his work as President of the United States by conferences he had with President Leguia of Peru and by contact with other officials. He was convinced the United States and Peru have the same aspirations toward promoting Pan-Americanism.

He believes his visit had been helpful in cementing the friendly relations which have existed since the foundation of the two republics.

Especially impressed was Mr. Hoover with the courtesy of his welcome by the Peruvians, who gave him a hearty greeting throughout the 11 hours he was on the soil of one of the oldest countries in the Western Hemisphere.

GIRL'S BODY IS FOUND BY BOYS IN A BARREL

Westville, N. J., Dec. 6 (INS)—Whisperers of Philadelphia or Camden, six miles up the Delaware river from here, today were believed responsible for the murder of a girl whose torso was found by boys in a barrel last night.

Search for the head and limbs of the girl in an effort to establish her identity was pushed today, while police questioned the crew of the government dredgeboat, New Orleans, from which the barrel came.

The barrel was ship—recently to the government dredge by a Philadelphia meat firm.

It was found by two youngsters, George Foster 15, and Howard Gray 9, who came on the barrel at the river's brink where they gathered dirtwood.

A possibility that the barrel might be linked up with the murder of two girls whose bodies were found recently near Norristown, Va., also was being investigated by police.

'Corn' and Gin Too Much for the College Boys

Colorado Springs, Col., Dec. 6 (AP)—All formal social events for the rest of the school year with the exception of the junior prom, have been cancelled at Colorado College here by the student administration body. The reason was the "outrageous conduct of certain members of the student body" in participating in alleged drinking parties at the annual homecoming celebration.

The atmosphere was so bad that the school rather forcibly at the recent homecoming celebration.

RICH WIDON'S SLAYER LEFT FINGER CLUES

Towanda, Pa., Dec. 6 (AP)—Police today were scouring Bertles records in hopes of tracing the murderer of Mrs. Samuel Jones, 63, wealthy widow, found slain in her home here last night.

Arthur Leonard, 41, who was named by Mrs. Jones as suspect, was found by police in the morning.

Chief clue.

The house was ransacked. Relatives said Mrs. Jones was in the habit of keeping large sums of money secreted in the house. None was found when police made a search.

"Two notes were found, but children of the woman said they were not in her handwriting."

One note read: "I have gone away for a few days. Take care of the stuff." The other said: "I have gone to St. Cloud." Relatives told police they did not know what was meant by "St. Cloud."

Evidence of a terrific struggle was seen. The bloody fingerprints on the auto found stalled a few hundred feet from the house led police to believe one person was pushing the machine, while another sat at the wheel.

The murder, it is thought, was committed Sunday.

BOULDER DAM
OPPOSITION

By EDWARD R. LOCKETT,
International News Correspondent.
Washington, Dec. 6.—The Boulder dam battle royal is on, spurred by confidence of success in the "constructive argument" which opened the debate, in place of last summer's bitter crossfire. Senator Johnson (D.) of California today initiated a move to swing discussion to amendatory legislation, in a final effort to get action.

There are pending 44 amendments to the Colorado river power and irrigation measure, and more than 10 additional ones have been drafted for introduction. Johnson will direct discussion to these as soon as possible. They must be disposed of before final action can come on the colossal engineering project.

Snatching a woman's handbag containing $19 on Winter st., today, a thief dashed away through the downtown shoppers, only to be captured by Patrolman George Reid.

The policeman was standing in a doorway and from a distance saw the thief turn and run from the owner of the handbag, who is North Kiley of Marlborough st. Reid waited until the man was opposite him and then he quickly stepped out and tripped him. He pounced on him and a brief struggle followed.

At police headquarters the arrested man gave the name of Harry Hess, 1244 st., Somerville.

"I am well satisfied with the first debate," Johnson said today. He was faced with the first general move of the opposition since he introduced the Swing-Johnson measure.

There has been no outspoken opposition to Mr. Johnson.

It will be late today before discussion begins from preliminary parliamentary tactics into the legislation itself. The opposition, led by Democratic Senators Ashurst and Hayden of Arizona, indicated a desire to throw out the water and power allocations first. They announced Johnson would be charged with betrayal of the cause of government ownership should he support an amendment according the government the option of operating a Boulder dam power plant.

CALL HIM "BETRAVER"

Johnson asserted the amendment was introduced at "the insistence of the secretary of the interior, to protect the government from possible monopoly."

"I don't consider that the administration would not approve the government's protecting itself by the option of operating the plant," he said. "As I understand it, the administration doesn't want the government to enter the retail power business."

To this Hayden retorted:

"I want to warn the senator from California that if he supports the optional amendment, he will be charged with deliberate betrayal of the cause of government ownership, which he has so long championed."

WEST, WHITING
NOMINATED BY COOLIDGE

Washington, Dec. 6 (AP)—President Coolidge upset predictions of many on Capitol Hill today by sending to the senate for confirmation the names of Roy O. West and William F. Whiting, Secretaries of the Interior and Commerce.

When the President failed to send them in at the opening of Congress there was much conjecture as to whether he might allow the secretaries to serve through the rest of his term under the recess appointments given them last summer.

UP TO SENATE

A fight on West has been forecast, based on the argument of some senators that he had been connected with the Insull power interests.

Mr. Coolidge, however, stated both names alone to the senate today for what action that branch of Congress may care to take—fight or no fight.

There has been no outspoken opposition to Mr. Whiting.

OFFERS HEARING

An indication that the fight against West might develop came as soon as the senate learned his nomination was before it. Chairman Nye of the public lands committee announced West would be asked to appear before that com-

Chicago, Dec. 6 (AP)—A record-breaking price for the International Livestock Exposition was paid today when the Hereford yearling owned by Clarence Guoke, 12 years old, of State Center, Ia., was knocked down on the auction block for $7 a pound.

The previous high price, paid in 1925, was $3.60 a pound. Today's purchaser was the J. C. Penney Co. of New York.

BOSSY OFFERED
$500 A WEEK IN VAUDEVILLE

Newburyport, Dec. 6.—Gosh, it's great to be famous. "Bossy" Gills, to whom thrills are nothing new, got a treat new kick today. He was offered $500 a week to go into vaudeville—and he said he'd love to think it over.

Yes, the under dog is top dog now.

"And it's the other fellow's turn to howl," grins "Bossy."

The theatrical gentlemen with the $100 per contract called at Mayor Gills' office just after noon. They were cheered with "Bossy's" voice, "Bossy," for once, was singing down.

"After his guests had gone," "Bossy" announced the terms of their offer.

"I dunno," he said. "That's a serious problem. I'll have to do it out, but I gotta climb off the fence one way or another before this time tomorrow."

Senator Nye said he would ask to have the nomination of West referred to his committee and hoped to take it up in committee on Saturday.

Jessica Brown to Be Married Again

London, Dec. 6 (AP)—The former Jessica Brown, American dancer who recently divorced Lord Northampton, is to be married within a day or two to Vivian Cornhill, son of Percy Cornhill of Windsor, Surrey.

It was understood the ceremony would take place Saturday in this city. Lady Northampton made formal announcement of her engagement to Mr. Cornhill on October 31.

Ask New Fire Doors
for Locomotives

Washington, Dec. 6 (AP)—An Interstate Commerce Commission order requiring railroads to install mechanically-operated fire doors on all locomotives by January 1, 1931, was recommended today by commission agents who have investigated the subject.

The doors are so arranged that pressure on a lever opens them for new fuel to be shoveled under the boiler. The order would apply to all locomotives fired with coal.

FIND BODY OF BOY; KIDNAPER CONFESSES

New York, Dec. 6 (AP)—The body of a boy answering the description of Joseph Storka, seven, kidnapped from his home at 135 First ave., on November 17, was found today in a swamp under a bridge near Succasunna, N. J. Jersey City police who found the boy, notified police here.

A systematic search of the swamp was started at daylight as the result of an alleged confession of Peter Kudirowksi, 28, to the police in Detroit, where he was arrested for intoxication, that he had kidnapped and killed an East Side boy.

Detroit police telegraphed Inspector J. L. Underwood of Jersey City that Kudirowksi had told them of killing a boy in the meadow near the Succasunna bridge last November.

Kudirowksi, they said, told of taking the boy to a movie, and then to Jersey City where they went for a walk in the meadow. Afterward, Kudirowksi said, he hid in Buffalo for a few days and then went to Detroit by bus.

The boy was last seen at 8 p. m. on November 17 by Joseph Gulliano, a playmate, who attended public school 122, First ave., and Ninth st., where Joseph was also a pupil. Joseph then was looking at the sign posted at 2 Second ave. movie theater.

When his mother, that night, reported him as missing, detective learned that earlier in the day a strange man, wearing a brown suit, had been seen to enter the boy's car and ask him to go for a walk. The boy was frightened and ran from him, playmate said.

Working on the theory that the kid might have been kidnapped, 15 detectives combed the neighborhood for days. Vacant apartments, cellars and roofs were searched, but in vain.

Learning that the boy's father, who lived in Italy, was estranged from his family because the mother insisted on remaining in this country with her seven children, and that he had made trips here to urge return to Italy, police investigated the possibility that he had returned and taken his son away. The idea was rejected, however, by the mother. Examination of the body showed the boy's throat had been cut.

NAME DICTATOR FOR CROATIA

London, Dec. 6 (AP)—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Vienna today said a military dictatorship has been ordered in Croatia, the province of which Zagreb is the capital.

Belgrade, Jugoslavia, Dec. 6 (AP)—As an outgrowth of recent anti-Serbian disorders in Zagreb, Prefect Zvezica of Zagreb will be supported by Col. Maximovich, Gen. Mirkovich who has been in command of the garrison of Zagreb, has been transferred to Rijeka.

Vienna, Dec. 6 (AP)—Brunner, Prithibitch, president of the Independent Democratic Party of Yugoslavia, today said the appointment of a military officer as prefect at Zagreb, Croatia, was unconstitutional. He said therefore none of the new prefect's decisions would be accepted, but would instead be challenged before the law courts. The opinion that the courts would annul these decisions was expressed by the Democratic leader.

STUDENTS ARE CASUALTIES IN SCALDED 'BANANA WAR'

Ann Arbor, Mich., Dec. 6 (AP)—One University of Michigan student was taken to the university hospital today suffering from burns received in the fall initiation of Sphinx, junior honorary society. Two other students were treated for less serious burns.

Harry M. Wallace of Highland Park, Mich., is the student taken to the hospital.

Hot water was poured on the Sphinx neophytes when, strapped to planks as part of the ceremony of being "mummified," they were carried beneath an arch where another society was conducting its initiation.

Bogota, Colombia, Dec. 6 (AP)—Banana was slain by strikers in the banana region of Colombia. Dispatches from the town of Soacha said troops were attacked and disarmed and several wounded by banana workers.

The advice said that the district is assuming a warlike appearance. A state of siege was declared by the Government in the Province of Santa Marta and troops were said to be proceeding to the towns of Cartagena, Barranquilla, Bucaramanga and Medellin.

According to the Government, the strikers have been directed by Socialists, who prevented departure of trains carrying bananas.

HUB BEAUTY

Doris Casassa is in the cast of the shoe industry's production, "Fashion's Footwear Fashions for 1935," a feature of the seventh annual style show to take place at the Hotel Statler, Jan. 2, 3 and 4.

Society to Attend Army and Navy Ball
Hundreds of uniforms of commissioned officers in the various armed services of the country will be seen tomorrow night in the large ballroom of the Copple-Diana Hotel where the seventh annual Army and Navy ball will be held.

Society will turn out in full force for this event, the outstanding military social gathering of the season. The governor, the mayor and other high civic officials and leading citizens will be present. Several excellent attractions have been planned, among them a competitive drill between marine and crack troops from the army, and a national guard and navy drill team.

Noville to Help Man British Dirigible

New York, Dec. 6 (AP)—Comdr. George O. Noville, who accompanied Commander Byrd on the transatlantic flight of the airplane America, announced today he would be one of the operating officers of the British dirigible R-100 on her voyage to the United States. He is to sail for Europe for an air tour of seven countries before the start of the R-100.

The dirigible is the only practical means of transoceanic travel, Noville said. "Anybody who reached the other side in an airplane, Lindbergh, Chamberlain or our own party, was just plain lucky."

'Dead' Baby Saved After Eating Poison

Newark, N. J., Dec. 6 (INS)—Baby Violet Smith of this city is very much alive today, although she had been pronounced dead after eating a number of atropine pills.

She was revived by an adrenalin injection into the heart by Dr. Jules Bernstein, who turned her over to her mother with the assurance that she would live.

VERY PAINFUL BLISTERS

On Child's Face, Arm and Neck. Cuticura Healed.

"My little boy's face, arm and neck broke out with a rash first, then blisters. The blisters soon spread all over the affected parts. They were very painful and itched and burned, and he used to lie awake at night crying out trying to scratch. The trouble lasted about eighteen months.

"I tried other remedies but they did not help him. A friend advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I purchased some and in three months the skin was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. John W. Whitington, 31 Willow St., Flushing, N. Y.

NEW MACHINE SETS TYPE BY TELEGRAPH

Rehoboth, N. Y., Dec. 6 (INS)—The "Teletypewriter," a new invention which sets type by telegraph, was publicly demonstrated here today for the first time. The inventor, Walter W. Moore, of East Orange, N. J., directed the demonstration.

Visualize a machine, similar to a typewriter, operating by a rapid type set. Picture the operator sitting in New York, for example, a news story before him. He starts "punching" type. Presto! Almost simultaneously the identical story comes out in type in newspaper columns miles away. In Washington, Atlanta, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, San Francisco—any distance, in fact, that the ordinary leased telegraph wire will carry without unnecessary interruption.

The device will revolutionize the printing industry, its inventor believes. It not only sets the type by telegraph but will increase several times the production of linotype and intertype type-setting machines, according to the inventor. It automatically operates either of these typesetting devices.

WILL SPEED UP NEWS

Future would seem, major football games, championship prize fights and events of national and international interest may be reported "direct from the scene" in the competing room of newspapers by the teletypewriter. The machine would be particularly applicable for the speedy transmission of the various lists of quotations on the Chicago Board of Trade and the New York Stock Exchange.

IS SIMPLE DEVICE

Men identified with the newspaper business were particularly interested in the demonstration. It was recognized by these interested spectators that practically all branches of the printing industry will be affected if the machine proves its practicability under working conditions.

The teletypewriter is extremely simple, and occupies little space. It can be attached to any existing standard typesetting machine, such as a Linotype or Intertype, with little more than an hour's labor.

The first portion is not a typesetting machine in itself, but automatically operates such a machine.

For illustration, the machine may be set to receive a message, a sending point. The typist perforates a series of holes in a continuous paper tape seven-eighths of an inch wide.

The perforated tape, automatically fed into another small machine, causes revolution of a similar perforated tape at a receiving end—in Chicago, for example.

The tape, new hundreds of miles from the sending station, is fed into another small teletypewriter

FOOTBALL STAR'S BRIDE

Rella Harrison, stage beauty, and Ken Strong, All-America halfback of the 1928 New York University football team, are to embark on the sea of matrimony. There is a little secrecy about the exact date of the wedding, but that it will be very soon is not denied.

Salvage of Coal Schooner Held Up

Portsmouth, N. H., Dec. 6.—The lighter Ajax of Portland, which arrived last Thursday, has been unable so far to start salvage operations on the coal cargo of the schooner Camilla Mar Page on the rocks of Newcastle since November 18. The only work thus far accomplished by the lighter is the removal of some rigging and deck equipment. The Ajax is tied up at the wharf at Port Star.

Four or five type-setting machines in a plant under teletypewriter control may be operated by one mechanic, according to the inventor.

DUST 313 FROM COAST GUARD YEAR

By ROBERT S. THORNBURG
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Washington, Dec. 6.—Efforts to maintain discipline in the United States Coast Guard during the past year resulted in over 1000 disciplinary actions, 313 dishonorable discharges, and 128 cases of imprisonment, Admiral E. B. Ellard, commandant, declared in his annual report today.

Ever since the coast guard has been charged with the responsibility of fighting rum smuggling, discipline has been a problem. Many of the court-martial verdicts in dishonorable discharge were the outgrowth of activities of the rumrunners.

The rum rings operating on every coast and the Great Lakes, with millions of dollars at their disposal, have concentrated their efforts on corrupting coast guardsmen.

Admiral Ellard has adopted a policy of combating his organization frequently for dishonesty. No commissioned officer has been charged with corruption in connection with law enforcement.

Because of unusual storm conditions the work of navigation, protection went to new records. There were saved or rescued from April 29th persons, a large increase from any preceding year.

Robinson Heads History Society

New York, Dec. 6 (AP)—Election of Dr. James Harvey Robinson of New York, former professor of history at Columbia University, as president of the American Historical Association, announced today. He will take office at the 44th annual meeting of the association to be held in Indianapolis December 28 and will succeed Prof. James H. Rowland of the University of Chicago.

Dr. Lee of New York was named chairman of the national endowment committee, which needs an endowment of $1,000,000 for historical research.

Smaller Banknotes Appear April 30

Washington, Dec. 6.—The new paper currency, which will be two-thirds the size of the present, will be put out after April 30, 1929. The House Appropriations Committee was informed by Henry Herick Bend of Boston, assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of the bureau of engraving. He estimated the reduced size would save the government $5,000,000 annually.

Suzanne's Visit an Unsolved Mystery

San Francisco, Dec. 6 (AP)—The Chronicle today reported that Mrs. Anita Baldwin of Los Angeles, wealthy daughter of the California pioneer, E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin, had gone to Truckee, Cal., in her jet-rider Pullman, presumably to meet Suzanne Lenglen, French tennis star, and two companions who arrived from Europe a week ago.

A secretary of Mrs. Baldwin said Mrs. Lenglen had been invited to Tahoe by Mrs. Baldwin several months ago. The elderly woman with the tennis queen is said to be her mother. A young man was reported to be either Baldwin M. Baldwin, son of Mrs. Lenglen's husband, or A. Winter, Mrs. Baldwin's former son-in-law.

'Blue Book' Agent Is Held as 'Society Swindler'

Chicago, Dec. 6 (AP)—Joseph Rheinstrom, said by police to be a swindler of national reputation, was arrested today charged with attempt to swindle Chicago society persons on a fraudulent social register scheme.

Police said Rheinstrom offered, for $250 each, to place names, pictures and family histories in the social register of the Society Press, Inc., New York, of which he said he was president. Several prominent persons were alleged to have paid him for "registration."

Rheinstrom was arrested when he kept an appointment with Mrs. Nicholas J. Nelson, who told police. Rheinstrom showed her pictures of Mrs. Otto Borden, Mrs. Lolla Armour Mitchell and Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, as those who had authorized him to insert their names in the register.

William W. Wright, Jr., showing gun marks, was another apprehended by Rheinstrom, police learned.

Today we announce complete electrification

IN NOVEMBER, 1927, ownership of the Boston, Revere Beach & Lynn Railroad changed hands. The new owners announced that electrification of the road would be undertaken and carried through as speedily as possible.

Today, scarcely more than a year from that date, electrification is complete. What does this mean to our patrons? How does it justify the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dollars?

The answer is clear—because it saves on running time throughout the road between Boston and Winthrop and Lynn—because it affords cleaner, more comfortable transportation.

A saving on running time morning and night—a few minutes a day—means many hours a year to you who commute regularly. Use it, if you will, to provide a little more leisure; or add it to the time you spend at your work as an extra measure of effort which has never failed yet to bring reward.

We take this opportunity to renew our pledge of service to our patrons. It is our distinction today to be the first railroad in America completely electrified.

Frank Boucher grabbed the puck deep in his own territory and raced for the Bruins' bank with Bunny Cook. As the Ranger forward hit the defense, Gainer stepped into the play and swung his stick at the left wing, drawing Iltichman out of position and making possible a clear path for Bunney Cook after the take. Cook, who Iltichman was drawn over by Boucher and then Cook cut sharply to his right and took a pretty pass, circled around and headed for Thompson. Conney Weiland was nearby, but only Brain Ford checked him, but he was unable to overtake the puck carrier. Conney just missed intercepting Boucher's pass and was a stride too late to check Cook, who was racing in at Thompson. However, Thompson made up for the error of his teammates by diving at Cook's flying skates and smothering the puck before the Ranger could get off his shot.

The Bruins are threatened with the loss of their great leader, Capt. Fred Hutchinson, for an indefinite period.

Though X-ray plates do not show a break in the shoulder, it hurt in the first few minutes of the game Thursday, Mann says. "I was fearful that his delicate star has been badly injured," he said. "I was afraid it might be a fracture, but I don't think it came to me," said Ross.

But, Hinch is in bad shape. "I'm not at present in a position to make any statement," said Dr. Mortell's report on his case.

"We thought after a post-game examination that he had a broken shoulder, and that would put him out of the game for a week or more," Mann said.

The Bruins' manager and players marveled at the courage Hutchinson is concealing in an injury that should almost certainly end his season.

"He's got a lot of guts," Mann said. "He's got a lot of guts to play against the Rangers from the nature of the injury he's got."

The Boston Evening American all-schools football team, selected by Dick McSweeney, schoolboy sports editor, will appear on these pages tomorrow.

The selections are the result of careful analysis and observation.

Everyone wants to know what the Boston American selections will be, as in years past, the Boston Evening American all-schools players have ranked high in the college football careers.

The Boston Evening American has selected in years past, such stars as Al Masters, Bob McPhail, both of Dartmouth; Joe McKenny, present coach of Boston College; and many others, now famous in the football world.

Watch for these selections tomorrow. They will be the pick of the schoolboy football world.

Members of the Women's Golf Association of Boston will assemble at the Alconquin Club today for their annual meeting, which will be preceded by luncheon at 1:15 o'clock. The chief item of interest will be the announcement of the names of which the next championship will be played. The course scored in 1904 to watch the championship tournament has not previously been conducted and it is expected that its announcement will be greeted with delight by the golfers.

Stasiak-McLeod in Mat Feature at Opera House

STAN AFTER GO WITH SONNY

Stasiak a 10-7 Favorite to Win; Has 40-Pound Edge on Farmer George

Wrestling for the right to meet Dynamite Gus Sonnenberg a week from tonight, Stanley Stasiak, Polish giant, and Farmer George McLeod of California are expected to stage one of the most sensational matches of the season at the Grand Opera House to-night.

Tossed by Sonnenberg a few weeks ago, the experienced Stasiak is regaining for another chance at the young sensation of the mat. The big fellow believes that he simply had an off night against Sonny and is determined to lose McLeod tonight in order to get one more chance at the minute-man from Providence.

STASIAK FAVORED

Stasiak rules a 10-7 favorite to win. He is far bigger, far stronger and far more experienced than McLeod. He will weigh 240 pounds while McLeod will not weigh above 200 lbs. He will have five inches in height, a corresponding advantage in reach and many years in experience.

The Lion of Poland, one of the colorful of all the wrestlers here for many a year, has been appearing in main bouts here for many a year. He is the end of the road for him if he does not lose McLeod tonight and has gained far more carefully than he did in order to enter the ring against the Farmer in the best condition of his career.

McLeod has not lost a single match this year, a fact which makes Stasiak's task a hard one. For Stasiak, who was a sensation here in his few appearances last year.

Dan Koloff of Bulgaria will meet Jack Albright and Freddie Meyer in the opening bouts.

New Garden Starts

War on Speculators

The new Boston Garden has been characterized by ticket speculators, and they don't mean "may-be". Any officer of the law, assigned to the Garden, and working out of the Harvard, will receive a $5 reward for the arrest and subsequent conviction of any ticket speculator caught picking his or her trade on or near the premises.

Capt. A. B. McConnell of Station 1 has been so notified and the plan has the consent of Police Commissioner Herbert A. Wilson. President C. F. Adams of the Boston Bruins will pay the reward when arrest is made in connection with one of the big league hockey games at the Garden and the management of the Garden will assist in all other cases.

GARDEN FISTIC STARS READY FOR TESTS

Four of the principals in tomorrow night's all-star fistic episode at the new Boston Garden are due to arrive in the city today to put on the finishing touches to their training, which each hopes will carry them to victory in four rounds bouts, which will feature the three boxing shows to be held at Boston's sports place.

SHADE IS FAVORITE

Dave Shade, Californian middleweight, will arrive today with Leo P. Flynn, his manager, who was a sensation here in his few appearances last year. Dan Koloff of Bulgaria will meet Jack Albright and Freddie Meyer in the opening bouts.

Creedon's Election Popular With All

The election of Paddy Creedon to captain the 1929 Boston College football team and the announcement of the schedule the Eagle eleven will face next fall just about completes the B. C. grid book for this year.

The annual banquet, which will be held the first week in January, will be the first chapter. Gold and silver letters will be awarded at the feast, which is being prepared by the B. C. student body, rather than the alumni, for the first time.

The election of the Brooklyn Flash was met with approval on all sides. Creedon was the subject of much handshaking as he went about the Heights with a broad grin on his face.

Creedon's election proved one of the most popular in recent years although he was opposed by Christy Murphy and Peter Herman, both of whom share of the crowd. Murphy and Herman were the first to congratulate him on his victory.

Paddy will go on a wonderful campaign next fall. His running mate is the sensational victory last year, but everything he did was overshadowed by the great Western Creedon was only a dozen points behind the Eagle in the score and he played about the same number of periods.

Creedon should run well next fall with Western a job to take over and with the leadership of the ever dependable Jimmie. Joe Murphy will still be in the office as a role, and Creedon should be able to perfection.

The announcement of the Boston College schedule for 1929 home games was not as popular as that of Creedon's victory.

Students and Alumni, from upon the idea of playing football by the same schedule as this fall, well knowing that the grid has been recognized B. C. claim to the eastern title due to the action of the opposition.

SCIENTIFIC FAIR As Boston College's annual show attracts there is little to distinguish from this fall's program and the results of the fair are expected to be the best of the year. The fair is expected to be the best of the year. The fair is expected to be the best of the year.

Tufts Grid Captain Elected Tomorrow

Tower Cross, the senior honor society at Tufts, will hold its annual fall games for the football and cross country teams at the Soldiers Gymnasium tomorrow night, at which the captain of the football team for the coming year will be elected.

The entire student body is expected to be in attendance as the usual at this function.

Clark Five Initial Williams Foe

Williamstown, Dec. 6.—The Williams basketball team opens its season Saturday night with Clark University of Worcester.

Clark Messer has been working only two weeks with his charges and the Purple line-up for the few days is uncertain as yet.

However, a number of veterans are available and the outlook is encouraging for a winning team.

Tech Confident of Win in Ice Opener

With only two more practice sessions before the hockey game with B. C. Coach Bill Stewart of the Technology team is highly optimistic regarding the result of Saturday night's encounter. If the practice session held with the Tufts any club may be considered a contender.

18 Out for Green Water Polo Team

Haverhill, N. H., Dec. 6.—Coach Stewart calls for candidates for the Technology water polo team to be held at Haverhill on Saturday night.

Eighteen men from last year's team are expected to return to the team for this year's team. They are H. H. Hubbs, assistant J. Hubbard, S. A. Smith, M. M. Chitt and W. J. Thurston.

FADS AND FASHIONS

A new light is thrown on the fur coat situation with the use of fabric as trimming. A coat of gray and black has been the trend of the season and the belt line, on the reverse and the edge. This fabric trimming creates the always desirable tailored line.

Circulating the report of the circular cuff, winter coats are now displaying this whim of fashion to great advantage. A smoke-brown velvet coat, richly trimmed in silver fox fur, has a whole skin with the head attached, attached around the belt to form a cuff.

Figuratively petite are the little evening jackets accompanying most of the season's gowns. Getting smaller and smaller, they tend more to the bolero type. One model lace jacket is worn over a triple tiered frock of green tulle, which shades from dark down to light in an interesting manner.

Width is a thing to be desired in the costume jewelry, especially where bracelets are concerned. One smart bracelet has links of green emerald combined with a chain of diamonds of brilliant and gorgeous crystals.

A WIFE'S MEDITATIONS

By HELEN ROWLAND.
To be granted a divorce for "insanity" would seem, to every married man, like being paid for being a clown.

The ideal husband is one who is satisfied with a raw oyster breakfast, a cafeteria lunch and a scrambled egg dinner.

Beauty, brains and culture may make a woman charming, but most men, non-demand more solid attractions. You never know how beautifully fascinating you are until you let it leak out that you have come into a lot of money.

The results of American higher culture, as seen in a college town, appear to be different flowers, but down, wild hair, careless socks and accidental marriage to Broadway chorines.

"As long as they fight, they love each other," according to a French philosopher. Still, many a woman would find it more, something to be loved tenderly, like a briar, instead of violently—like a golf ball. There must be times when the wife of a saxophone player secretly wishes he would exchange it for a harp.

Self-Protection While Bicycling

A SIMPLE means of defense for the lady cyclist, or fair sex, is what is known as the water squirt. This is an ingenious little weapon, sold at cycle shops. It is shaped like a pistol, only it has an India rubber handle which holds water. When pressed, the water squirt will squirt a shower for a distance of three feet. The water squirt is guaranteed to stop the most vicious dog or man. The water should be kept in cold, in order to shock the assailant. With a little practice you should be able to down a tramp or masher without any trouble, except for the victim.

When to Increase Salaries; Having to Ask More Is Bad

BY C. C. FORBES

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. - When is the best time to advance salaries? This question is timely.

A good many employers in the city have just given an advance of 10 per cent. to their employees. Others have given 5 per cent. and some have given 10 per cent. to their employees.

It is reached very definite conclusion that the whole subject of salaries is a very delicate one. It is not one that can be handled in a haphazard way. It is one that requires the most careful consideration.

Not only so, but even the best of employers who have been successful in the past, are now finding it difficult to do so. The reason for this is that the employees are now more conscious of their own value.

Among large organizations and institutions there has been an earnest effort to standardize salaries. This has been done in order to avoid the difficulties of having to ask more.

Length of service creates another problem for the employer. The employee who has been with the company for a long time is entitled to a higher salary.

It was at North East that the problem of the employer was first solved. The solution was to give the employee a salary that was based on his own value.

Some of the company's plans are being put into effect. The president is in an exclusive interview with the Boston Evening American.

At the present moment we are conducting a campaign to get the public to understand the value of the money that they are paying for the goods that they are buying.

"May I Help You?"

Better Now, Sir and Madame, Than on the Saturday Before Christmas

Including today, there are sixteen shopping days left before Christmas. Aisle in the stores are clear, stools present a wide range in choice, sales forces have the time to satisfy the most exacting demands.

The procrastinating will put it off until the last minute, this year Monday, the 24th. Delivery then will be uncertain to say the least. Tempers will be frayed, stocks greatly reduced.

There are many arguments in favor of shopping early, none against the practice. Strongest of all is the urge to be considerate of other people, in this case the sales forces. Salesgirls are not machines which say, "May I help you?" and write sales checks. They are flesh and blood like the rest of us and flesh and blood will stand so much and no more. The quality of mercy, remember, is twice blest.

Employers can help to avoid the confusion which is bound to prevail as the festival draws near by giving each of their employees a half-day off, with pay, on condition that the time be devoted to Christmas shopping.

Postoffice employees, too, as well as clerks and merchants, will appreciate the consideration of the wideawake employer and do what they can to make his thoughtfulness profitable. As for the sleepy and the slothful, perhaps it will be quite as well to be saving of printers' ink and let them go their way. They are going to defer, put off, dabble, fiddle and shilly-shally until the closing hour two weeks from next Monday. Then they are going to find fault with clerks in and out of the Postoffice, the traction service, the traffic cop, messenger boys, the weather bureau, everything and every body except old (or young) Mr. and Mrs. Procrastinator. Don't be like that.

There Is No Age

Women Are Only as Old as They Allow Themselves to Be

Paints by May Wright

WHICH IS THE MOTHER?

You see here Lady Poulett, widow of the late Lord Poulett of the Horse Artillery, killed in the war. With Lady Poulett are her son, the present Lord Poulett, aged nineteen, and her daughter, Lady Elizabeth Poulett. And the puzzle is "find the mother."

You know, of course, at a glance that the mother is the woman in the center with the friendly face. But her face is no older than that of her daughter beside her, only a little more fully developed, on the whole, more pleasing.

Women are no longer old, they are only older IN YEARS. Eubela tells of an incident in which an old woman could not be told from the younger woman with her back turned.

Today you can hardly tell the difference with the face turned.

And that is as it should be. The important thing about a human being is THE SPIRIT. Religion and common sense teach that the spirit is immortal. The thing that is immortal cannot grow old.

The body surrounding it lasts only so long, but if the spirit is kept cheerful, the mind full of hope, youth remains, foreign to what we used to call old age.

One or two generations ago a woman was expected to wear a lace cap after she was thirty-five years of age, and to settle down.

Now she buys her tenth hat, her twentieth pair of silk stockings and STEPS OUT, which is perfectly correct, provided her stepping is of the right kind and it nearly always is.

As Others See Us

America, After All, Is Not a Land of Stupid Sameness

Englishmen will be interested in the report on the United States made by Ralph D. Blumfeld, an English journalist, heading a committee of journalists that has just traveled the United States.

The average European thinks that United States cities are standardized, as alike in appearance as buffalo nickels. We know better. Now Mr. Blumfeld knows better, too. He says, on departure:

"The astonishing thing about the United States—and this even strikes me after a long absence abroad—is that no two of the great cities of this country are alike. The large towns of Great Britain are more or less alike in their general aspect."

He finds an astonishing difference of appeal in Boston, New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Denver. San Francisco charms him most of all.

"It has all the poise and art of Paris, the enthusiasm of New York and the leisure of London."

So it isn't America, after all, that is the land of stupid sameness.

Americans who have traveled Europe and their own country can report that nowhere do they find such variety, charm and appreciation as they observe in touring their own land.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—A sudden after-theater rain emphasizes Manhattan's "second company" serves its restlessness and impatience. For some reason the town became impatient in a shower. The other evening after a brilliant premiere the crowd was imprisoned under the marquee by a downpour.

Broadway immediately tied itself up in a traffic knot. The quickest stepping street in the world was suddenly inert. Those shabby umbrella-wielders, who appear mysteriously from nowhere two minutes after a rain, offered no comfort. It was a dreary "struggle crowd."

For a few minutes it retained a good humor. Then taut nerves began to explode. Impatience at the number and carriage cabs turned to impatience. The usual jostling accepted good naturedly by crowds resulted in verbal abuse and many epithets were passed.

It is no exaggeration to say the assemblage was on the brink of rioting. One stiff and stalwart—mostly stiff—gentleman mounted a chair and delivered a fiery oration on the subject of the sidewalk. He pointed out the only citizen able to depart was a high city official in a low-numbered cab. That picture is overdone, by the way.

There followed more hoars and outcries for the police, whose number had luckily been reinforced. Before it was over an excited woman, snatched an evening wrap from another woman and ground it under her heel, and to cap the well-known climax an elderly lady slumped to the sidewalk in a faint.

It was a bit of midnight madness that would probably not take place in any other American city. In Paris they cut such excesses before breakfast, just for the evening. But in the big emotional cities New York keeps its head, but disturbed by inconsequential little off the ladder.

When it does the depth of mean temper is touched as may be noted in what is one brief and riotous fight decision at Madison Square Garden. No matter how many ladies are present, the ladies become decidedly "The Front Page."

After a brief pause was offered with the aid of the police, the riotous fight decision at Madison Square Garden was decided "The Front Page."

LISTEN, WORLD!

By ELSIE ROBINSON

YOU have heard of the Dangerous Forties and you may have thought Romance was the best thing of that restless age. It isn't. Romance may be best field hands and stylish stunts and for a time keep bustling. They shift position constantly—red-jackets—reach out. Something is wrong with life when it begins to take things easy—grows sluggish or set. The vital urge is dying out and the near.

Something is wrong with your life line, recalling the days of youth and take things easy. This may happen before the Dangerous Forties. It may happen early in the thirties—but always it is an ominous sign. When you begin to have a favorite chair—look out!

When you want your food cooled just in a certain way and are miserably if it isn't—be careful! When you begin to dislike change and resent new ideas—get wise to yourself!

You're in danger! You're being trapped by comfort. Comfort is the deadliest trap for the human spirit. It's nice to be comfortable. It's a delightful to have one's favorite chair—one's favorite food—one's favorite idea. It's most gratifying to have all the crush spots, adjustments and bolsters come inconspicuously. Yes, comfort is a pleasing thing—but comfort is done. Keep yourself uncomfortable! Force yourself to take on new responsibilities, new ideas, new contacts.

Break up your sluggish routine—abandon your petty little preferences and prejudices. Crash out of your snug-down habits. Yank yourself back into life!
